

Berlin GAA – Zero Tolerance for Racism in Gaelic Games

Berlin GAA stands united in our commitment to eliminating racism in all forms on and off the pitch.

We are proud to be part of a global GAA community that values respect, inclusion, and fairness. As a multicultural club rooted in the heart of Berlin, we believe diversity is a strength that enriches our teams, our supporters, and the game itself.

We have a zero-tolerance policy toward racism.

Any form of racist behaviour including language, gestures, or actions will not be tolerated under any circumstances. This applies to players, coaches, officials, members, and spectators alike.

If racism occurs, we will respond with immediate and appropriate action, in line with our code of conduct and safeguarding principles. Education, accountability, and allyship are key to ensuring our club remains a safe and welcoming environment for all.

Gaelic Games belong to everyone.

At Berlin GAA, we are committed to leading by example, promoting respect, standing against discrimination, and fostering a culture of inclusion where everyone can thrive.

No to racism. Yes to respect. One club, one community.
